

WE ARE ONE

Text Englisch

These days the world stands still,
Everything seems to fall apart.
An overwhelming fear,
a lack of control and free will.

But there's one thing, stronger than any crises could be,
Saving lives, bringing back hope:
It's one word: It's WE!

In these times...

We all stand together -
humanity will rise
No matter what it takes -
our bond by heart survives.
From near to far
Wherever you are Nobody's left outside alone,
'Cause we are One

Many feel trapped in front of a wall made of hopelessness, anger and pain.
The overall feeling of loosing it all
No chance to be happy again.

But there's one thing, stronger than any crises could be,

Saving lives, bringing back hope:

It's one word: It's WE!

In these times..

We all stand together -

humanity will rise

No matter what it takes -

our bond by heart survives.

From near to far

Whereever you are

Nobody's left outside alone,

'Cause we are One

The world might change

but so are we.

Let's take this Chance

Stand up for Unity!

We all stand here together -

humanity will rise

No matter what it takes -

our bond by heart survives.

From near to far

Whereever you are

Nobody's left outside alone,

Yes, 'cause we are One!
